CHIPPEWA CLUB CO.

WILL CHANGE NAME

As stated in the Sentinel last week, a new company called the Chippewa Club Co. purchased the lake and upper grounds from the Chippewa Lake Club Co., and sent incorporation papers to Columbus.

Early this week word was received from Columbus to the effect that another company by the same name from Cincinnati had been incorporated for some time, which necessitated changing the name of the new company.

New incorporation papers were made out for the Chippewa Lake Community Club. The amount incorporated for was the same as in the first application, $100,000.

Should the papers be returned in time a meeting will be held at the lake Saturday, when it is probable officers and directors of the new company will be named.

MATTRESS SALE

FOR EIGHT DAYS

Sale Commences Friday, April 25 - - - - - Sale Closes Saturday Night, May 3

WE have purchased a CAR LOAD of MATTRESSES that the Government had contracted for, but when the Armistice was signed the Government cancelled all orders. This left the manufacturers with an over-supply and they have closed them out at a big sacrifice.

We were fortunate in securing a car load and offer them at special prices for 8 Days
